

Air India Kozhikode Office in India

The Air India Kozhikode Office in India serves as a critical infrastructure for travelers in the Malabar region of Kerala, providing essential support for both domestic and international flight operations. Located in the heart of the city at the Eroth Centre on Bank Road, the city office acts as a primary point of contact for administrative services, including detailed flight reservations, ticket cancellations, and itinerary modifications. This central location allows passengers to receive personalized assistance with complex travel needs, such as managing Maharaja Club loyalty accounts, coordinating group bookings, or navigating the specific requirements for unaccompanied minors and medical clearances.

At Calicut International Airport (CCJ) in Karipur, Air India maintains a robust operational presence to manage the daily flow of passengers and cargo. The airport office is strategically positioned near Pillar 21, between Departure Gates 1 and 2, ensuring that travelers have immediate access to ground staff for check-in procedures and baggage inquiries. This operational unit is vital for maintaining the airline's schedule integrity and providing real-time solutions for travel disruptions, such as re-accommodation during weather-related delays.
